

28th September 2020

Dear Members.

You should now have received your notice for the 2020 AGM. At the time of the Committee making the decision to hold an AGM, the guidance was that a maximum of 30 attendees would be permitted and we would work around whatever restrictions are in place at that time.

However, things have again moved on, and we have been advised by the Three Swans Hotel that they are enforcing the “rule of six” for all gatherings. Accordingly, as the situation stands today, members will not be able to attend the AGM.

As you will appreciate, we are dealing with a great deal of uncertainty and whilst this is not ideal, it seems the only way we can hold the meeting. Please can I encourage you to send in any questions in advance of the meeting. Questions will be covered at the end of the meeting with responses included in the minutes.

I would also stress that we all need to be prepared for late alterations to arrangements as the AGM could be cancelled or amended at any point if Government advice changes at the last minute.

Finally, please can I remind all Members to ensure that RSL has their up to date email address as in order to save costs we are moving towards all correspondence being sent via email, to include the AGM minutes.

Thank you in advance for your understanding and on-going support.

Kind regards
